

Lake County Housing Authority Contractor Briefing

An Initiative of the Lake County Housing Authority

Open House

Friday June 22, 2018
10:00am to 11:30am
Lake County Housing Authority
33928 N. US Highway 45
Grayslake, IL 60030

We invite all contractors and companies of the surrounding communities and bordering states to meet with LCHA Directors and leadership members. We welcome all current, past, and new contractors operating in Lake County, McHenry County, Wisconsin, Chicagoland area, and NW Indiana area to attend this event. If you are interested in becoming an LCHA approved contractor or becoming more familiar with our projects, criteria, qualifications, contracts, and selection process you should attend. Several topics will be discussed and numerous questions and contractor concerns will be addressed.

For more information, or to RSVP, Please contact: Keon Jackson 847-223-1170 Ext. 2240 or Kent Britton, kbritton@lakecountyha.org or 847-223-1170 Ext. 2660

The Lake County Housing Authority, IL was created under the 1937 Housing Act for the purpose of providing decent, safe, and sanitary housing to the low and moderate-income residents of Lake County. Currently, LCHA owns and manages a variety of affordable housing units and administers Section 8 Housing Assistance Vouchers along with a myriad of supportive service programs for its residents. A seven person Board of Commissioners authorized by laws of the State of Illinois and appointed by the Lake County Board, is responsible for the development of housing policy and the authorization of expenditures.
